GATHERINGS

Gatherings	Registration Fee	Limited To
Discover Your Leadership Voice: Transforming Team Communication	$60	50 Participants
Staying Healthy, Hopeful, and Effective While Building a Racially Just Campus	$100	50 participants

Discover Your Leadership Voice: Transforming Team Communication: Monday, June 3, 2024, 1pm-4pm

Everyone has a leadership voice, whether they know it or not. From the most quiet to the most gregarious, we all have the ability to lead others. The problem is most people don't know their leadership voice or how to use it. Some don't know what it is, others are insecure in their voice and have been told it is unimportant, and others immaturely overuse their voice and dominate the airwaves. Welcome to the 5 Voices.

The 5 Voices is designed to help every individual discover their leadership voice and be empowered to use it effectively. We believe teams and whole organizations can be transformed when everyone operates securely in their own voice and learns to value the voices of others.

Meals will not be included in this preconference.

Staying Healthy, Hopeful, and Effective While Building a Racially Just Campus: Sunday, June 2, 2024, 5pm-8pm & Monday, June 3, 2024, 8am-4pm

Trying to build a racially just and unified campus in the midst of our society's political tensions and cultural wars can be frustrating and exhausting! Despite the challenges, it is essential for Christian campuses to continue to work toward building a healthy, multiracial environment for their students and employees. In this pre-conference, you will have the opportunity to process and collaborate with other passionate leaders facing similar challenges. The content is designed for all student life professionals who would like to be encouraged and strengthened in their work, regardless if you have an "official" diversity role on campus or not. The first two sessions will be focused on YOU. Do you feel motivated? Encouraged or discouraged? Equipped? Then, we will discuss practical steps you can take to be an effective advocate for the long haul. The last two sessions will focus on your CAMPUS. Do you feel like your campus is moving forward, stuck in limbo, or moving backward? Then, we will discuss practical steps your campus can take to make sustainable progress and how you can help to nudge those efforts along in your sphere of influence. Throughout the time, Christina and Chad will share some insights from their 50+ years of combined experience working with individuals and organizations, but their primary focus will not be "content delivery." Their goal will be to facilitate encouraging, productive peer-to-peer dialogue and processing. It is highly recommended that participants read Christina and Chad's award-winning book Faithful Antiracism (faithfulantiracism.com) ahead of time. Throughout the pre-conference, they will reference and build on the biblical principles, research, and best practices described in the book. It is especially helpful if you can attend this pre-conference with a group from your campus.

Meals and early lodging provided for this preconference.

NEW PROFESSIONALS RETREAT: FRIDAY, MAY 31 - SUNDAY, JUNE 2

The New Professionals Retreat (NPR) caters to individuals in any realm of Student Development/Affairs-related roles on their campus, who possess three years or less of experience in the field. This pre-ACSD annual conference event brings together new professionals from both faith based and non-faith based institutions. The weekend is dedicated to fostering networking opportunities, sharing experiences, engaging in professional development, and benefiting from mentoring provided by a team of experienced higher education professionals.

Please note that NPR Housing will be available starting Friday, May 31. Due to limited availability, we encourage early registration, as we can only accommodate up to 25 participants. Secure your spot promptly to ensure your participation in this enriching experience. Register at your earliest convenience to avoid missing out on this valuable opportunity.

EMERGING PROFESSIONALS RETREAT: FRIDAY, MAY 31 - SUNDAY, JUNE 2

The Emerging Professionals Retreat (EPR) is tailored for individuals with 3-7 years of experience in any facet of Student Affairs-related roles on their campus. Geared towards emerging leaders in both faith and non-faith based institutions, this retreat precedes the ACSD annual conference, offering a weekend brimming with educational insights, networking opportunities, and personalized professional development. Facilitated by a team of senior student development professionals boasting over 80 combined years of expertise, EPR provides a unique platform for growth and connection within the dynamic field of Student Affairs.

MID-LEVEL PROFESSIONALS RETREAT: FRIDAY, MAY 31 - SUNDAY, JUNE 2

The Mid-Level Professionals Retreat (MPR) caters to seasoned ACSD professionals with approximately 8 or more years of experience in student affairs, especially those in supervisory roles at the associate or director level. Tailored for individuals aspiring to executive positions, the retreat emphasizes leadership growth and cultivating a positive campus-wide impact. Participants delve into challenges of leading from the middle, reconnect with their motivations for staying in the field, and build meaningful relationships. MPR also addresses holistic self-care, encouraging strategies for well-being, and teaches the creation of safe spaces for spiritual and emotional support within the supervision structure. This retreat provides a unique opportunity for mid-level professionals to engage in comprehensive professional development and network with peers who share similar experiences and aspirations in student affairs.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT SUMMIT: FRIDAY, MAY 31 - SUNDAY, JUNE 2

The Student Government Summit unites outgoing and newly-elected student government leaders and their advisors for three days of impactful transition planning and collaborative learning. This unique gathering emphasizes three key themes: leading as a Christian in a pluralistic world, navigating leadership during conflict and change, and advancing the project of reconciliation. Participants share resources, engage in dynamic discussions, and learn from experts, empowering them to lead with a Christian perspective, navigate challenges effectively, and contribute to building a harmonious campus community.
